TO THE PLANTERS IN MIDDLE AND SOUTHERN GEORGIA.

FOR TWENTY YEARS we have served you, we believe faithfully. Our success depends upon your prosperity, hence we have zealously sought to promote your interest and advanced it by every means in our power. As Commission Merchants, we again tender you our services at our old stand, which has withstood the flames of a burning square (thereby proving its security), and where we hope to merit the very liberal patronage always given us.

The sale of Cotton is our specialty. We flatter ourselves none can excel us. To old friends we return thanks; to new ones, we say try us, we will try to please you.

Usual accommodations given to enable you to make a crop. sep25-d3m

BROWN'S HOTEL,

(Opposite Depot)

MACON GA.

THIS long and well known Hotel, with its unequalled system, still presents itself to the traveling public.

The House was opened on the 1st of January, 1856, and took at once a prominent position among the "first class" Hotels of the country. It has never been closed since, but it has been steadily increasing in prosperity, till it acknowledges no successful rival in the business in the State.

Recent improvements and refurnishing of the House, which is still in the hands of the Proprietors, have left nothing to be desired by those who love their ease and enjoy the comforts and luxuries of life. The Hotel is admirably situated for the convenience of the travelling public, being situated opposite the Passenger Depot, and but a few steps from the same. It has a retinue of well trained servants in every department, and the Proprietors will spare no pains or expense to sustain the established reputation of the Hotel. Special attention paid to the wants of lady guests, who may sojourn at the House, and none shall go away dissatisfied, if an earnest endeavor to please will secure a liberal share of the public patronage. jel6—d6m

SPECIAL ATTENTION GIVEN TO COTTON.

Liberal advances made on Consignments to us for sale, or Shipment to our friends in Baltimore, Philadelphia, New York or Liverpool.

Wishing to aid our Planter friends in their efforts to secure for themselves the full benefit of their Cotton Crops, we have determined to make advances on Cotton consigned to us on the following easy terms:

On Cotton, for sale at discretion, advance seventy-five (75) per cent. of its market value, charging interest on the advance until the Cotton is sold at the rate of seven (7) per cent. per annum.

On Cotton, to be held Thirty Days, advance fifty (50) per cent. of market value, charging the regular commission for advancing, 2½ per cent., and interest on the advance at the rate of seven (7) per cent. per annum.

On Cotton, to be held Sixty Days, fifty (50) per cent. of its market value, charging commission for advancing, 2½ per cent., and interest on the advance at the rate of one (1) per cent. per month.

In all cases the advance will be based upon the market value of the Cotton on the day it reaches us. MERCER & ANDERSON.

COMMISSION MERCHANTS,

Corner Prior and Hunter Sts.,

In sight of the Passenger Depot, and near the United States and American Hotels,

ATLANTA, GEORGIA.

WITH the advent of another Cotton Season, we renew to our friends and patrons the offer of our service in the storage and sale of their cotton. We have demonstrated the fact by the experience of past seasons, and particularly of the last, that Atlanta is one of the best interior cotton markets of the South. This is due chiefly to her situation, being on the direct route from the producing districts to the large seaport marts, and having the advantage of three routes to New York, via Savannah, Charleston and Norfolk, all of which are freely and satisfactorily used. The importance of Atlanta as a cotton market was, during the last season, acknowledged by the New York buyers, many of whom made extensive purchases, which with the local competition enabled us to realize the most satisfactory prices; relatively higher in most instances than could have been obtained by our consignors, by shipments to more distant points.

The members of our firm are all men of large experience in cotton, and well known in the commercial community. Our Warehouse cannot be surpassed. Being of large dimensions, completely sheltered, and fire-proof. Every money facility usual in such cases we are prepared to furnish.

☞ The New York World says that the Cuban fillibustering movement is assuming a practical aspect, and that a descent of a body of adventurers on the Cuban coast either from New York or New Orleans may shortly be expected. The report of the revolt at Puerto Principe is confirmed. The insurgents are supplied with arms from St. Domingo, and it is thought the Government authorities in Havana are sensible of their inability to subdue them.

☞ The Knickerbocker Life Insurance Company of New York, have offered Gen. Robert E. Lee the position of Supervisor of Agencies for the Southern States, at a salary of $10,000 per annum.

QUARREL BETWEEN WASHBURNE AND GRANT.—"Tyrone Powers," the well-advised New York correspondent of the Augusta Chronicle and Sentinel, holds forth as follows in regard to the reported split between Washburne and Grant, and the probable policy of the coming administration:

And now for Grant. The all but universal impression here is that he will stand conservative. I hear, on very good authority, that he has already quarreled with Washburne; and, if so, the rupture is significant. Washburne is the man who got Grant his commission as captain, and afterward shielded him from removal when that step was agitated on account of alleged drunkenness. The relations between the two have been exceedingly intimate, and were not my information such as can hardly be gainsayed, I would be loth to credit a disruption. One account is that Washburne sought to make Grant feel that he (Washburne) was his good genius, and had procured his election—something that Grant at once resented. Another story is that Washburne, who is a bitter Radical, and aspires, since Stevens' death to the leadership of the ultras, sought to mould the administration in accordance with his own views, and that Grant refused point blank to follow a revolutionary lead. Which account is correct, it is hard to say—probably the latter; but, whatever the cause there has been a rupture and Grant is represented as so fearfully incensed at Washburne that at the very mention of his name he grinds his teeth. Like most men of mediocre calibre, the President elect is morbidly suspicious of anybody seeming to exercise any influence over him, and a statement reaches here from Washington to the effect that he is stubbornly determined to follow nobody's decrees but his own. Men here who know him, say he is bull-headed to the last degree, and if so, we are likely to have lively times in the next Congress. It is a remarkable circumstance, which is becoming more and more unmistakably evident as the full returns come in, that many thousands throughout the North who voted for Grant for President voted the Democratic ticket for Congress. The consequence is that there will be a very heavy Democratic vote in the next House—so heavy, indeed, that if Grant chooses to set himself in opposition to the ultra Radicals, it will only be necessary for him to form a coalition between the Democrats and about twenty of the more moderate Republicans to give him the support of a majority in the House. With such a coalition, the Senate could be brought to terms by cutting off supplies. Whether Grant will seek such a coalition is, of course, not certain, but it is thought not at all improbable that he will.

EDUCATE YOURSELF.—The New York Sun is urging workingmen to cultivate the intellect, and become an Intelligent and well informed as any other members of society:

It is surprising (says the editor) how much may be obtained by devoting a few hours each day to study, during a series of years. Gibbon produced his great work rather by the regularity than the protracted nature of his daily studies. Franklin became the wisest one of the best read of his cotemporaries in the midst of incessant labor. And if the workman, with his healthful mind so well prepared for the reception of knowledge, will give two hours each day to careful study, he may, in a few years, surpass in general information the great majority of college graduates, who so often obtain a diploma without deserving it, or who have laid aside their learning the moment they left their preceptors. He may elevate his own intellect by coming into communion with the eminent intellects of the past.

PERSONAL AND LITERARY.—An American gentleman of high literary genius has written a tragedy on "Bonaparte"—one of the most magnificent themes in history for grand dramatic treatment. Bonaparte himself, with Talleyrand, Fouche and others, with his two wives, with his great officers, with his royal brothers and relatives, with the splendid procession of great and glittering characters associated with his times, pass across the stage or the imagination during the progress of the drama. The language, philosophy, and moral of the tragedy are majestic and impressive. There would undoubtedly be a difficulty about getting the requisite number of capable actors to impersonate the great characters in the drama; but it will probably in time take shape in literature, if not on the stage. —New York Times.

National Banks.

The Boston Advertiser of a recent date has the following in reference to the tight money market. The statement is worthy of a careful reading:

"The report of October 17th shows that the New York banks, with an aggregate capital of about $33,500,000, had immediate liabilities of about $223,000,000, of which $189,000,000 were deposits. To meet these they had less than $59,000,000 in legal tender notes and about $9,000,000 of specie. The two together show a surplus of about $12,000,000 above the strict requirement of the law; but as the specie can only be regarded as a special deposit, the true statement would be $214,000,000 of liabilities and $59,000,000 of legal tender reserve or an apparent surplus of five and a half millions. But as probably some twenty-five millions of this reserve consisted of three per cent. certificates, which cannot be paid out to the public, the actual available amount of legal tenders was probably less than $35,000,000, or not 17 per cent. of the immediate liabilities of the banks, and not 20 per cent. of the deposits alone. Yet many of these deposits include the chief reserve of 'lawful money' held, or supposed to be held, by multitudes of banks in other parts of the country—so that this paltry board of thirty or thirty-five millions comprises perhaps nearly one-half of all the actual basis by which nearly nine hundred millions of money is made good.

"But this is not all, nor one-half the truth. The aggregate reserve, insignificant as it is, is only made tolerable by averaging bad and good together. It seems, indeed, almost incredible to what extent many banks have loaned the money of their depositors, and how small are their means of immediate repayment. The Greenwich Bank, for instance, with a capital of $200,000, had loaned $1,100,000, and to repay deposits of above $800,000, it had a reserve of $140,000. The City Bank had loaned above four times its capital, and had only $440,000 of paper reserve to meet deposits of above $2,300,000. The People's Bank loan was three and a half times its capital, and with a paper reserve of less than $200,000 to meet deposits of $1,200,000. The Park Bank has loaned seven and a half times its capital, so that a depreciation of less than one-seventh in the value of its loan would sweep its capital away. But the climax is furnished by the Bull's Head Bank, with a capital of $200,000, a loan of above $1,700,000, and no reserve at all reported. There are other loans of four, five and six times the capital of the bank, and the average is more than three times. When the days of our present paper delusion are over, will it be credited that such things were done and were tolerated."

WILL GRANT BE OUR NEXT PRESIDENT? The Chicago Republican, a Radical organ whose mission seems to be to out-Radical the Chicago Tribune, has the following significant passage in the last leading editorial article:

It is assumed by many that General Grant will immediately resign his position as General-in-Chief of our armies, and that duty as well decorum requires it. This assumption only shows how ignorant certain persons are about the nature of his office and the requirements of the Constitution. Grant is not yet even President elect. According to the theory of the Constitution the Electors, chosen by the people of the several States, are supposed to be seriously canvassing the claims of such citizens as they believe ought to be made President, in which the names of Grant and Seymour appear only as two persons among hundreds of others. Grant will not be President elect until declared so by the counting of the Eelectoral votes, on the second Wednesday in February, before the President of the Senate of the United States. Before the result of the ballot made by the Electoral College is officially declared, it would be the light of indecorum for General Grant to assume, by resigning his position as General-in-Chief, that he is to be the next Executive of the nation.

What does it mean? Is it a threat, or what? "There is many a slip 'twixt the cup and lip." Grant's silence alarms the Radical camp. "If he break not this silence he is damned;" else what can the Chicago Republican be driving at? Not yet President! That's true enough. The electors might easily meet in their several State capitals and, by a concert of action, cast their votes for old Ben Wade or Schuyler Colfax. Grant had better look sharp. We don't think the danger is imminent; but who can foretell the vagaries of Radicalism.—Courier-Journal.

DRY GOODS.—A revival of activity was very generally looked for in dry goods after the election; and no doubt the anticipations of the community in this respect will be fulfilled. But no intelligent merchant expected that the revival would commence the very next day after the election, though some commercial reporters for the daily and weekly press seem to have put that construction upon the prediction.

The transactions of the past week have been on a limited scale, but prices have undergone no change which demands special notice. The terrible stringency of the money market, which had been growing in force for a fortnight, continued with unabated rigidness all through the week up to Saturday morning. Very serious consequences might have been anticipated to the dry goods dealers, and a marked decline in the prices of staple fabrics. But none such occurred; and the steadiness of the market, under a pressure that forced down the prices of Government bonds three per cent., and sent gold down to 132¼, must be construed as indicating a healthy condition.

The condition of the market as respects domestic fabrics, both cotton and woolen, apply to foreign goods, which are more immediately affected by the fluctuations in the gold market. The retail trade of the city is very good, but the auction sales of the week have been unimportant. Importations have considerably fallen off, and our importers evince a disposition to carry over as small a stock of goods for next year as may be possible.—New York Independent.

☞ Amos Norris, of Warren county, Ga., with one plow and a horse, cultivated this season eleven acres of land in cotton and eighteen acres in corn. The land was of the poorest, yet he made five bales of cotton and one hundred bushels of corn. Not only did he cultivate this crop without assistance, but unaided and alone picked the cotton and harvested the corn. Adam Todd, of the same county, with but little assistance, made five bales of cotton on nine acres of land and two hundred bushels of corn on eighteen acres. His land was a little better than that of Norris'. More of such men are needed to complete the reconstruction of the noble State of Georgia.—Augusta Constitutionalist.

NO MUNICIPAL ELECTION IN MACON.—We learn on good authority, that Attorney General Farrow has decided that, under their present charters, no election for Mayor or Aldermen can be held either in Macon or Columbus, until after the meeting of the next Legislature. The present officers will therefore hold over until their successors are appointed.

Since writing the above, we have received the legal opinion of Messrs. Poe, Jackson, and Anderson, which coincides with that of the Attorney General.—Macon Journal and Messenger.

☞ General Grant will have control of 53,000 offices and officers, whose annual compensation amounts to thirty millions of dollars.

COTTON.—The market has evidently reached a crisis for the current crops. Liverpool shows a larger stock of American than was estimated, and there is a much larger quantity afloat for that market than at this date last year. The demand is good, but English spinners will not be slow to take advantage of circumstances so much in their favor, and they are likely to make a prodigious effort to depress prices; they will undoubtedly look for a decline of 2d., and if this should take place at a juncture when our factors could give but little support to the market, a decline in this market to 20c. for middling uplands would not be unlikely.

The above appears in the monetary article of the New York World of the 7th instant, and as a grain of warning may lurk in its dark bearing, we publish it for the benefit of our cotton community.—Sav Advertiser.

FLOUR—The market is steady with a fair local demand and good stocks, with sales reported of 1,340 bbls various grades within the range of our quotations: No 3 at 6 25@6 50; extra family at 7 50@8 00; No. 1 at 8 75@9 75; fancy at 8 75@11 00. Rye flour at 7 75@8 00.

GRAIN—There is no quotable change in prices; transactions are of limited importance. We note sales of 500 bushels new corn from store at 60@70; 2,000 bushels white wheat at 1 75; 500 bushels oats at 54; 6 0 bushels No. 2 spring malt at 2 25. We quote wheat at 1 65@1 85 for red and white on arrival—Corn, new 50@ per bushel on arrival, 60c from store; old at 85@90 shelled, in bulk and in the ear. Rye 1 35 from store, and 1 15@1 20 on arrival. Barley 1 75@2 00 for Nos. 1 and 2 spring; no fall barley in the market. Malt is steady at 2 25@2 40 for spring, and 2 75@3 00 for fall.

PROVISIONS—The market was quiet with light transactions. The sales to-day include 50 tierces hams at 17. Lard is steady; sales of 23 tierces at 17. We note 900 hams from block at 9. We quote clear sides at 18¾@19; clear rib sides 17¾@18; sugar cured hams 15@18; sugar cured hams 16@18. Lard, in kegs, 18¾; tierce 17@18.

St. Louis Market.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 13.

FLOUR—The demand for low grades is buoyant and prices favor buyers, but not quotably higher; higher grades are dull; superfine is quoted at 4 50@5 00; extra 5 50@6 50; XX 6 75@7 50; XXX 8 00@8 50.

GRAIN—Wheat in fair demand and prices stiff at 1 50@1 85 for prime to choice red fall; 1 81½@1 85 for choice to fancy white; spring unchanged at 1 15@1 18 for No. 3, and 1 37 for No. 1. Corn very scarce and unsettled; choice yellow and white new sold at 60@65, old 75@80. Oats firm at 48@52. Barley quiet, Iowa spring sold at 1 50; choice Illinois and Minnesota 1 80@1 92½; fancy Minnesota 2 20. Rye unchanged at 1 00@1 10.

PROVISIONS—The offerings are very light and market quiet; new mess pork sold at 25 00; old do 29 25. Bacon shoulders are worth 14, clear sides 18¾, choice canvassed sugar-cured hams will not bring in round lots over 16. Lard dull and lower; choice kettle 19½; prime 18½.

Cincinnati Market.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 13.

FLOUR—In fair demand and the market firm; family 7 75.

GRAIN—Wheat in moderate demand at 1 75 for No 1 red. Corn dull; new 56@57, old rejected held at 80. Oats dull at 57 for No. 1. Rye in moderate demand at 1 28 for No. 1. Barley nominally unchanged.

WHISKY—Dull at 1 00.

HOGS—Dull; weather milder; receipts large and prices lower; sales at 7 00@7 50 gross, and 9 00 net the closing rates; receipts 6 000 head.

PROVISIONS—Green meats dull and prices lower; shoulders 7½, sides 10½ and hams 13. Lard dull and demand light; sales at 15½ for prime kettle and 12 for prime steam rendered. Bulk meats are dull; shoulders 10@10½, sides 13, clear rib 14, and clear at 14½; all about ½c higher cured and including packages. Bacon shoulders can be bought at 13.

OILS—Linseed dull and prices nominal; it is held at 95, with only a limited demand. Lard oil steady at 1 40.

New York Market.

From the New York Herald.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.

DRY GOODS—The market continues steady at 15@18 for heavy brown sheetings, 19 for Atlantic L., and 20c. for Lonsdale R. and Lawrence F., 13¾ for Pittsfield A, 13 for Pepperell R, 17¾ for Androscoggin bleached muslins, 12 for Great Falls, 14½ for Hope, 15 for Hill's Semper Idem, 15½ for Jame's Steam Mill, 17 for Lonsdale and Masonville, 20½ for Mowell and New York Mills, 24½ for Reynold's, 38 for Utica 6x4, 29 for Amoskeag denims and 17½ for heavy brown drills. Prints steady at 12 for Oriental and Lancaster, 12½ for Pacific and Dunnel's, 13½ for Merrimack D, 13 for Cocheco F and Canton flannels, 37½ for Great Falls A grain bags.

FRIDAY, November 13—6 P. M.

STOCKS—The stock market has been in a very weak and excited condition to-day. The prevailing distrust of stock value is not confined to Wall street, but extends over the entire country, and the chief anxiety of holders of stocks is to sell them, the only support of the market being the citizens, and among these demoralizations is rapidly spreading.

MONEY—Money was in moderate supply at seven per cent. in currency, with exceptional transactions at this rate in gold. The demand for discounts is very moderate, and the best grade of commercial paper is quoted at 9@10 per cent. and the second grade at 10@12 per cent.

GOVERNMENTS—Government securities were very dull and heavy all day, and the market closed without improvement.

EXCHANGE—The foreign exchange market was dull and steady, under a light demand for bills and a fair supply of those drawn against shipments of produce.

COTTON—Receipts 2,030 bales. The market was not so active as it was yesterday though a fair business was consummated, the demand being almost entirely from spinners and exporters. Prices were firm at opening, but heavy at the close at our quotations appended. The sales were 2,935 bales, including 1,750 for export, 1,031 for spinning and 154 on speculation.

FLOUR AND GRAIN—Receipts 9,197 barrels flour, 154 bags corn meal, 108,091 bushels wheat 15,347 do. corn, and 59,433 do. oats. The flour market was very quiet and, though not heavy, holders would have been compelled to throw off something in order to insure sales to any extent. This was done to a very limited extent, some small lots of good extra State having sold for export at 8 75, holders generally refusing to sell below 7 00; southern choice and family 10 25@14 50; Southern superfine and extra 9 75@10 00.

WHEAT—Wheat was dull but unchanged. The sales were only about 30,000 bushels at 1 85 for No. 2 and 3 mixed spring, 1 86@1 88 for choice No. 2 (closing at the inside price), 1 95 for red winter.

STAR AGRICULTURAL WORKS.

The Albany Cotton Gin Manuf'g Co.

Manufacturers of the Celebrated "Star" Cotton Gins and Condensers, "Star" Threshing Machines, "Star" Lever and Endless Chain Horse Powers, and other Agricultural Machinery.

Our "STAR" Cotton Gin and Condenser have taken first premiums in every instance where entered at Southern Fairs, competing with the best Gins of the country made by other parties.

At the two Great Fairs of the Mechanics' and Agricultural Association, held at New Orleans successively in November, 1868, and January, 1865, the "Star" Gin and Condenser took first at both Fairs, and all the premiums offered on Gins and Condensers, against a competition embracing all other Gins of any prominence in the country. Also, at the last two State Fairs held at St. Louis, Mo., our Gin and Condenser took the First Premium against a powerful competition.

The Condenser attachment being new to most planters, we wish to say that it entirely obviates the necessity of a "lint room," as with it a Gin may be used in the open air and the sheet or bat as it is discharged from the ADDRESS OF THE COMMITTEE.—We call special attention to the bold, manly and patriotic address of our Central Executive Committee, and hope every Democrat in the city will heed the recommendation. The pure in faith will have no business at the City Hall to-day.

PERHAPS.—General Sherman is reported to have said of General Grant a short time before the election, that if elected, "his administration of the executive office would disappoint the extremists of both parties, it being Grant's intention, if elected, to select men of moderate and conservative views for his cabinet, and initiate such a policy as will harmonize conflicting interests and restore peace to the entire country."

We should gladly accept the disappointment. Grant's accession to the Presidency puts Gen. Sherman at the top of the military ladder, and very near the master of the White House. Might not General S. do something towards the verification of his prophecy about the Cabinet?

Come On.

Now that the election is over, when misrepresentation may no longer be profitably used to the manufacture of political capital, we hope to hear no more stories of Southern outrages upon freedmen, and persecutions of Northern men who come South to settle in our midst. No doubt they have done more than to produce the mere effect for which they were designed. They have deterred good men at the North from coming among us in quest of homes. This class will soon learn that we were placed before them in a false light, and that in no section of the country may greater personal security be found than in the South. The field is such an one, in our opinion, as offers the rarest inducements to immigrants. There is scarcely a section of country under the sun of such extent which offers so many inducements to capital, labor and enterprise as that vast region embraced South of the Potomac and East of the Mississippi, in the States of Virginia, North and South Carolina, Georgia, Florida, Alabama and Mississippi. For diversity in climate, soil and production, we dare say it has not an equal anywhere. The average value of lands in this vast area are remarkably low in view of their natural fertility. They are capable of sustaining under a high degree of prosperity, more than twenty times their present population. They are susceptible of a great variety of crops, embracing tobacco, cotton, all the cereals, vegetables, fruits, and whatever contributes to the comfort and sustenance of man.

Ever since the close of the war, the South has been eager to induce immigration from the North and elsewhere, into her midst. We trust the good people of the North will soon become satisfied that we are anxious to have them come amongst us, to form a part and parcel of us; to assist us in developing the resources of this great section, that it may reach that high period in progress and prosperity, which a teeming population willing to labor, and imbued with enterprise, alone can give it. We believe the day of mere adventurers from the North into the South is past, and that henceforth we shall receive from it a large acquisition to our population, composed of people whose object will not be to foment domestic or political strife, but who looking to the advantages of this section, will seek it in the highest interests of permanent citizenship.

The South, in our opinion is a far more inviting field for immigration than the North-west. To its preference in clime and greater variety in product, it adds the advantages arising from old and settled communities. There is scarcely a point in the section named in which good society and the advantages of civilization do not already exist, whilst in the far West, where the territory has been but recently reclaimed from the savage, none of these advantages are to be had.

We repeat, to all good citizens of the North, and especially to working men, such as know how to cultivate small farms to the best advantage, to mechanics and capitalists, who would seek the most inviting field for labor and capital, to come and settle amongst us, and the Southern people will give them a warm and cordial welcome to their midst.

Editor Constitution: I desire through your columns to announce my withdrawal from the Democratic Central Executive Committee of Atlanta.

Very Respectfully,

M. C. BLANCHARD.

Though our friend's name appeared in our columns as one of the Central Executive Committee, it turns out that he had no such appointment. His withdrawal, therefore, does not weaken the Committee in the least.

The Committee now consists of nine gentlemen—all of whom, we believe, are still in sympathy with the Democratic party.

☞ Now, when the truth is known, it appears that the rebels were responsible for the trouble at the polls at Savannah, Georgia, and not the freedmen, as the rebel press association made appear.—Iowa Gate City.

Of course, the rebels were responsible for it, and that's not all: they expect to shoulder the responsibility of the California earthquakes.

☞ The Iowa Gate City says: The Louisville Journal and Courier have consolidated. The ideas born of that union will all be old.

That is certainly a new idea, though not a bright one, which is conceding much to the Gate City.

☞ The editor of the London Punch, Mr. Mark Lemon, is giving "readings in costume" in that city, as Falstaff, "assisted by professional artists," and the scenes selected from Shakspeare's Henry IV, parts one and two, comprising those more particularly devoted to the humors of the fat knight, the stage being "hung with tapestry, as in the time of the author." The London correspondent of the Boston Post says that in 1817 Mark Lemon kept a tavern called the Shakspeare's Head, in Wych street, (an abominable slum, mainly devoted to the sale of indecent publications at the bottom of Drury Lane,) where a circle of wits and literary men used to assemble of Saturday nights, who started Punch, and christened him over a bowl of that liquor, the landlord turning editor, his customers contributors. He is of Jewish descent, and has some reputation for ability with his pen, having been connected with other journals, and also written farces and dramatic pieces. For many years, however, he has not contributed a line to Punch, confining himself entirely to his editorial duties, and being, in truth, rather fat and lazy, notwithstanding which he has produced a novel or two of very mediocre talent. Punch is now pretty nearly entirely written up by Shirley Brooks, Tom Taylor, Mayhew, and those two very dull dogs, Burnand and Byron.

☞ The Louisville Courier-Journal says there are more fine residences being built in that city than ever before at any one time.

TO THE PEOPLE OF GEORGIA.

Farmers' Convention at Macon, December 9, 1868.

From the Madison Auditor.]

The undersingned were appointed a committee, at a meeting of Agrienlturists held in the city of Eatonton, Ga., at the late Agricultural Fair in Putnam County, to address you on the subject of Immigration, and to ask your co-operation. It was agreed to hold a meeting in the city of Macon, at the City Hall, at 10 o'clock, A. M., on Wednesday the 9th day of December, ensuing, composed of one Delegate, at least, from each county in the State, to devise and set on foot the best plan for all the different sections of Georgia, to promote immigration from the Northern States and Europe, as will furnish the best labor on the best terms, for the improvement and development of all the varied interests of Georgia and Georgians. Touching the immediate subject of immigration, the committee deem it best not to propose any plan of action in this address, but to leave the whole question to the Convention—and we simply urge a full attendance at the Convention.

This, people of Georgia, is no small work, nor is it a Utopian idea. And now is the time for the work to begin. It has already been delayed too long, and if deferred still will only end in greater injury.

Farmers of Georgia! the burden rests mainly on your shoulders. Others are to be benefitted in a corresponding ratio—but it devolves mainly upon you to "put the ball in motion." Co-operation is what we need. This is to be effected by full and free discussion of the whole question. This can be had at Macon at the time specified. We cordially invite you, therefore, farmers of every county in Georgia, to appoint one or more delegates to represent your interests in the Convention at Macon, and to aid in the work. We must not wait. There is too much danger in delay. Too much sacrifice in postponement. Send the best men you can get, and let the good work commence. It will take months to accomplish the first step in the enterprise. It is all important to begin right. One false step may be productive of incalculable mischief. Our present labor, from the signs of the times, will, in a few years more, be almost worthless. It is not the sort of labor we need now. It is inadequate, unskilled and unreliable, and becoming more so every year.

Maryland is awake! Virginia is arousing! Missouri, Texas and Arkansas are all moving! Georgians! we too must begin, if we would save our good old State, ourselves and our children from abject poverty. Our invitation is earnest—the crisis is near; the results certain and glorious, if we begin right—begin in time, and act throughout with wisdom. Let us have representatives from every county at Macon. And let us then and there inaugurate a system of labor which shall regain our lost prosperity. It and it alone will be our salvation.

The redemption of Georgia from poverty, now upon her, the improvement of her lands, the development of all her great and varied resources, is the work to be accomplished. It can be done. This work must have a beginning. This is the object of the Convention to be held at Macon. There is not labor enough in the State to accomplish a tithe of what may be done, with proper management. In addition to all the labor we now have, we need hundreds of thousands of skilled laborers from abroad for this great work. And, in conjunction with this labor we shall need capital and capitalists. Let us invite them, too, from the North and from Europe, if the Convention deems it best to do so.

Be not lukewarm upon this subject, for this is the golden opportunity to make a beginning. No work can be half so important for us or our children.

NORTH-EAST GEORGIA.—Now that disfranchisement has been removed and the relief swindle exposed, the Sixth District shows her true Democratic strength. It will be seen by the returns which we give from a portion of it that our estimate of its strength will rather fall below than exceed the actual count.

We have not heard from all the counties, it is true, but may safely say that the majority will exceed the five thousand which we claimed. We append such returns as have been received:

The Democratic majority in Jackson is 791. This is a gain of more than one thousand since April last! Huzza for Jackson!

The Democratic majority in Gwinnett is 825—a gain of about five hundred since April!

Little Madison has done nobly. The Democratic majority is 307—it was but 170 in April!

Old Franklin has redeemed herself. Last spring the Democratic majority was but 127; it is now 557.

Little Banks has been tried in the furnace, and comes forth pure gold. The Rads beat us there last April. We now beat them 106!

In Hall it seems there was not a full turn out. Although our gain has been considerable, it is not as large as we expected. The Democratic majority is 296.

White, though small, gives a good account of herself. Seymour, 433; Grant, 143.

In Lumpkin our majority is reported at 150. This is a gain of between fifty and one hundred.

Old Walton has covered herself with glory. The Democratic majority was about 90 in April—it is now 701!

Forsyth gives Seymour a majority of 391—a gain of 142.

Milton gives Seymour a majority of 401—a Democratic loss of one since last April.

Union county gives a Democratic majority of 155—a gain on the vote of last spring.

Make way for the banner county of the District! Little Rabun has proven herself as true as steel! Seymour 316, Grant only 55!—the largest gain in the District!—Athens Watchman.

Wheat.

From the Southern Farmer.]

The value of the crop renders it of great importance to every agricultural community, but many say it does not succeed well in the South. Let us look at the causes of failure:

1. Sowing on wet land defeats the crop and renders it liable to rust.

2. Imperfect preparation, without manure. It is scratched in, on most land, for the soil cannot be said to be ploughed.

3. No attention is paid to quality and preparation of the seed.

What crop would succeed with such culture and management? If you want a good crop of wheat, select a suitable soil, and let it be thoroughly drained, and then plough deep and subsoil. Do not be afraid of deep ploughing and subsoiling; you cannot break the land too deep. Turn in all the vegetation, and scatter all the manure you can upon it. Cotton seed, lime and leached ashes make a good manure, and are easily obtained. Let your land be thoroughly pulverized by the plough and harrow before you sow your seed. Then plough your wheat in with the shovel or bull-tongue plough, and roll it. Our falls are generally very dry, and few persons estimate the value of a roller on a wheat crop; but you will find that it hastens the vegetation, renders the surface smooth and in good condition for cutting, and prevents the land from baking and becoming hard. For your seed wheat, get the best you have or can find, and before sowing soak it in salt water and take off all the wheat and chaff that floats (it will not do to soak it too long), and then sow the perfect wheat; or if you prefer, you may use bluestone in the same way. The latter is said to prevent the smut. The salt water is easily obtained. My father-in-law never used anything else, and I never knew him to fail in making a crop of wheat, or to suffer from rust, but he always prepared his land well by deep ploughing and harrowing, and opened his his water furrows so thoroughly that water would not stand on the land after the heaviest rains. The application of lime and salt, in quantities of three or four bushels of lime and one of salt, is an excellent manure, and will correct any acidity in the land, and we think will be a preventive of rust. "Waring and Brown speak of the lime and salt mixture" as containing more valuable qualities, both for manuring and digesting, than lime itself. Professor Blake says, "This mixture is obtained by slaking fresh burned lime with water thoroughly saturated with salt, using the materials in propotion of three bushels of lime to one of salt. The lime decomposes the salt, giving us chloride of lime and carbonate of soda, both valuable agents in promoting the fertility of soils. To secure the more perfect combination of the lime and salt, the brine should not all be applied at once, but at intervals of a day or two, in order to give time for the changes to take place more thoroughly; and even after slaking is completed, ten or twelve days should elapse before the mixture is used. Lime is useful to the farmer as a food for his crop; as a digester of animal, vegetable and mineral manures in the soil; as an absorbent, indirectly, of valuable manures from the atmosphere; as a neutralizer of injurious acids and other poisonous compounds; as a pulverizer of stiff clay soils, and as a general stimulant, which improves both the quantity and the quality of his produce."

Our wheat crop is important for the Southern country, and it may be greatly improved by a proper preparation of the soil and a liberal application of manure, together with good seed. My only object to manure, as too expensive. The manure should be raised on the farm. By judicious management it can be made profitable to every farmer. Where lime and salt do not cost too much, they are worthy of a trial, on small scale at first, and if found profitable, as we believe they will be, they can be applied more extensively. A neighbor has manured a lot and made twenty bushels per acre, while crops surrounding have not averaged four bushels. Will not an increase of sixteen bushels per acre pay for the labor of manuring? Will it not be econmy in labor and money thus to make one acre of land produce as much as five by the ordinary process of cultivation?

SENEX.

THE REVOLUTION IN CUBA.—But little is known to the outside world of the progress of affairs in Cuba. The authorities of the Island continue to prevent the publication of anything which gives a proper idea of the difficulties of the Government with the revolutionists. An exchange contains the following extract, from a private letter dated Havana, October 29, and addressed to a gentleman in Baltimore:

"You already know that the inhabitants of the eastern part of this island have risen in arms and proclaimed the independence of the island. The Government has sent about ten thousand soldiers to check the revolution, but until the present it seems they have been able to do but little or nothing, on account of the difficulties the troops find in marching through unsettled districts covered with rocks and woods, and where many men are lost without seeing the enemy. Whole companies have often been obliged to run for their lives without having fired a single shot. Our papers publish every day accounts of the victories obtained by the royal troops, but we well know what this means, for though we read that so many of the enemy were killed and wounded and so many prisoners taken, we find in the same account that the killed and wounded were taken away by the rebels, who could not be overtaken in their precipitate flight. In another part of the paper we are told that one prisoner was taken and marched through the nearest town, which proves that taking prisoners is a rare occurrence with our brave troops. Our present victories are similar to those obtained in St. Domingo, and the result will probably be the same. The Government is doing everything in its power to crush the revolution, but it has not the means to do it effectually, and no help can be expected from the mother country. We do not yet know what will be the result of the present conflict. No buisiness is done in the city; money is so scarce that even our National Bank cannot cash its notes, and the latter can only be changed for gold at the stores at four to five per cent. discount."

PROSPERITY OF TEXAS.—According to the general estimate of the present crop of cotton in this State, and the amount that will probably be brought to this market, there certainly appears to be some reason to anticipate a great improvement in the general prosperity of the State, and in the business activity of this city, even though our political condition may not be improved. There is a pretty general conviction that our condition, politically, cannot be made much worse. The receipts of cotton in this market since September 1, have been 22,261 bales, which, as prices have ruled, are worth not less than $100 per bale, currency, or $2,226,100 in all. It is believed by many that the cotton yet to be received here must be six or seven times as much as has been received, and if the price is maintained, the receipts for cotton alone will probably amount to fifteen millions of dollars; but to this are to be added the receipts for other exports, such as wool, hides, beef, cattle, &c. Our total exports in 1860 were $12,873,172. Although, therefore, there has been a considerable falling off since that time in the cotton crop, yet the total value of our exports is much larger now than then. We refer to these statistics to show our readers that in Texas, at least, we have good reason to hope for better times, and that, as regards our material prosperity, there is no ground for despondency. We could easily name many new sources of revenue, many new branches of profitable industry, many new products for export that were not known in 1860, all of which are beginning to contribute to our prosperity.—Galveston News.

THE "BEND."—An economical method of producing the Grecian bend has been discovered. On rising in the morning, before breakfast, take, on an empty stomach, one pint of green chestnuts, two large green apples, half a pound of raw cabbage, and a quarter of a pound of honey. A little milk and vinegar will add to the effect. The bend, in the most approved form, will appear in about half an hour.

If it has not reached the grade of proof spirits and is redistilled to bring it to that grade, it is not liable to the tax. Whether the article is distilled twice in the same still, or in different ones makes no difference in regard to the liability to tax.

A special to the New York Times says Messrs. Clift and Prince, Republican members of Congress from Georgia, called at Army Headquarters to-day, to represent the condition of things in that State. They assert that there was no protection at many of the polls for loyal men at the recent election, and that no fair expression of the people can be had at the election for Congressmen in February, without the presence of additional troops.

TALLAHASSEE, Nov. 17.—The circular of the Unterrified Tiger Committee published to-day endorses and recommends Col. Wm. H. Saunders as the people's candidate for the 41st Congress, and as a representative man of his race and of the people of the South. Saunders takes the stump at once.

A poetical discription of about 100 lines on the impeachment situation appeared in Reed's interest this morning, which affords much amusement to the rebels so-called. Lt. Gov. Gleason issued today a proclamation, dated yesterday, which states that in the late special session of the Legislature a quorum of both houses were present; that Governor Reed recognized them by sending messages and transacting business with them; that twelve members of the Senate were present; that the impeachment of an officer is in no sense legislative business but is exclusively judicial in its character, and such as may be as well transacted at a special as at a regular term; that the Constitution declares that any officer when impeached shall be deemed under arrest and disqualified from performing any of the duties of his office until acquitted by the Senate; that Harrison Reed in gross contempt of all the people of the State and their assembly which impeached and their Senate the only tribunal under the Constitution which has jurisdiction in cases of impeachment, in violation of the Constitution of the State, refuses to deem himself under arrest and disqualified from performing any duties of his office until acquitted by the Senate, or submit himself to the judgment of the Senate, but arrogates to himself the right to pronounce the impeachment void, and proceeds in his office as if no impeachment. He preferred that no citizen, charged with crime, can set up his private judgment as to the regularity of his impeachment or warrant for his arrest, and law in this respect makes no difference between one that is Governor and one who is not, but requires all to submit to arrest, and go before that tribunal appointed by the Constitution to make their defense, therefore proclaims that said Harrison Reed, Governor of Florida, is deemed by the Constitution under arrest and disqualified from performing any of the duties of his office until acquitted by the Senate, and that power have devolved upon him calls upon all citizens to aid him in exercising the powers and discharging the duties devolved upon him by the Constitution, and to put down the lawlessness and anarchy which must inevitably ensue if any man impeached or indicted, however exalted in station, refuses submission to arrest imposed by the constitution. The document is signed W. H. Gleason, Lieutenant and Acting Governor, and countersigned by George J. Alden, Secretary of State, and bears the impression of the seal of State. Gov. Reed also has a State seal said to be a duplicate of the original.

RICHMOND, Nov. 17.—In the United States Court this morning a trial commenced on a writ of habeas corpus case, in which the counsel for Ceasar Griffin, sentenced to the penitentiary for shooting a white man, ask his release on the ground that Judge Sheffrey, who held the Court, was ineligible under the 14th amendment.

The decision of this case will affect nearly all judges in the State, and make void or confirm all legal business transacted by them since the proclamation of the adoption of the amendment.

HAVANA, Nov. 17.—Intelligence received here state that the steamship Star of the Union, from New Orleans for Havana 10th, was totally wrecked near Bahia Honda. The crew and passengers were saved.

BERLIN, Nov. 17.—Bismarck resumes his functions in December.

NAPLES, Nov. 17.—Vesuvius is in violent eruption.

ONE MINUTE TO SAVE YOUR LIFE!

Take Disease in time and you will suffer less and be saved many days of useless misery.

What one hundred letters a day say from patients all over the habitable globe:—

Dr. Maggiel, your pill has rid me of all biliousness.

No more noxious doses for me in five or ten pills taken at one time. One of your pills cured me.

Thanks, Doctor. My headache has left me. Send me another box to keep in the house.

After suffering torture from bilious colic, two of your pills cured me, and I have no return of the malady.

Our doctors treated me for Chronic Constipation as they called it, and at last said I was incurable. Your Maggiel's Pills cured me.

I had no appetite; Maggiel's Pills gave me a hearty one.

Your pills are marvelous.

I send for another box, and keep them in the house.

Dr. Maggiel has cured my headache that was chronic.

I gave half of one of your pills to my babe for cholera morbus. The dear young thing got well in a day.

My nauseau of a morning is now cured.

Your box of Maggiel's Salve cured me of noises in the head. I rubbed some Salve behind my ears and the noises left.

Send me two boxes; I want one for a poor family.

I enclose a dollar; your price is twenty five cents, but the medicine to me is worth a dollar.

Send me five boxes of your pills.

Let me have three boxes of your Salve and Pills by return mail

Do, for, my burn has healed by your Salve.

For all Diseases of the Kidneys, Retention of Urine, &c., &c.,

ROOMS ATLANTA DEMOCRATIC EX. COM.,
November 17, 1868.

Democrats of the City of Atlanta: Your nominations for Mayor and Councilmen have been regularly made. Every Democrat is expected to sustain them.

They are worthy of your support; and will be triumphantly elected.

Every Democrat, who went into the nomination, will have any connection with the attempt to divide the party by the so-called People's Ticket, which is only a shallow Radical device to defeat the regular Democratic nominees.

Democrats have failed to defeat us by fair and open opposition, and let no Democrat be decoyed by their plausible pretexts to draw Democrats into a new ticket, in order to weaken our party.

The nominations were participated in by all classes, the mechanics and laboring men of the city included, and to put out a new ticket now is to withdraw a large portion of our fellow citizens entirely from any voice in the selection of candidates.

They will treat this effort to bring out another ticket, as a movement directly against them, and a opposition to the Democratic party.

The Committee, therefore, recommend that no Democrat lend himself to this disorganizing movement on to-morrow.

By order of the Committee.

R. ARNOLD, Secretary.

AMERICAN KINGS.—Should the government of the United States ever become a monarchy, we propose to run the following ticket: Grant, for Smo-King; Ben. Butler, for Ta-King; Pat Yates, for Drin-King; Ben. Hill, for Spea-King; Wendell Phillips, for Tal-King; Horace Greeley, for Thin-King; Chase, for Ban-King; Tom Morton, for Ra-King. If old Abe were alive, he could beat the world for Jo-King.

The Fluctuations of Gold.

The price of gold has been fluctuating of late in a manner very damaging to business and the public interests.

It is one of the worst evils of the high premium upon coin that it is constantly unsettling prices, and that it gives opportunity for variation of values so wide as to disturb the legitimate and healthy course of trade. The elements of risk and uncertainty which it has introduced into all commercial transactions affect the well-being of all classes of the community, and work injury to all lines of business.

There can be no permanent remedy for these evils but in the resumption of specie payments—that is, in the appreciation of the currency to the value of its face, and the value of the gold which it assumes to represent. Every point of decline in the premium on gold—every point of advance in the price of bonds—is a step in that direction; but while the movements are apt at any moment to be reversed, we must look for a continuance of the financial distractions and business confusion from which we have suffered so long and grievously.

From one cause or another, the premium, which has been gradually moving downward of late until toward the close of last week it reached 32—33, has, during the past day or two, been again forced upward. We don't suppose any man could give a satisfactory or intelligent reason for this reverse. The reason assigned by those who take the trouble to think or reason at all, would probably be, some inconsequential action of Secretary McCulloch, or some small action it was supposed he might attempt. They would never trouble themselves with the large and comprehensive grounds of faith in the national solvency and credit. The assurance of the honorable dealing of the Government in regard to the debt—the fact of unbounded national prosperity and great crops of exportable staples, the state of exchanges, the vigor of the Treasury, the strength of our foreign credit, the hopeful future opened up by the powerful and peaceful administration of President Grant—these elements, that are of such vital importance in a true survey of the situation, are overlooked or undervalued. What matters it, in reality, if Mr. McCulloch were to re-issue a few millions of the Greenbacks that were inopportunely withdrawn last year? Does that invalidate the credit of the nation, or should it be counted against the general sweep of things? And suppose, after all, he were not to re-issue them, what basis would these who are now fearful of it then have to stand upon?

It is the puerile work of speculators to bring up such points as are now made use of. And those employed by other parties as speculators are equally puerile. What matters it, in reality, whether the Treasury sells a few millions of gold every month? The coin in its possession is, in any event, a security for the public credit. We know that Mr. McCulloch has, within the last few days, suspended gold sales; but what if the changed state of the market, and the rise in the premium were to lead him to resume them? The incident would be of no slightest consequence, yet we may see it at any hour affect the premium seriously as well as the course of business.

If people were guided in these things by some knowledge of financial principles, by some comprehension of the basis of credit, by some intelligible idea of the laws that must certainly, in spite of petty manipulations and temporary accidents, control the course of affairs, there would be fewer of the meaningless fluctuations that have wrought ruin to so many individuals, and such serious disturbances to business.—N. Y. Times.

GEORGIA BANANAS.—A couple of fine bananas were laid upon our table yesterday by Mr. Samuel L. Hays, taken from a large bunch which grew on his mother's farm in Thomasville. We have a bunch fully maturing in our own yard, but Mr. Hays beats us, and his are not only ripe, but large and fully matured. We doubt whether Cuba can beat them for size and flavor.—Georgia Enterprise.

☞ The New York Tribune recommends the immediate enfranchisement of all who have been disfranchised by reason of the rebellion, and submits a plan for a constitutional amendment, which is to be well considered before taken, and is warranted—with the consent of Gen. Grant, not to fail in securing lasting and general peace.

Unfading Beauty.

[This beautiful sonnet was written over two hundred years ago, by Thomas Carew, one of the gentlemen of the privie-chamber to Charles I.]

Hee that loves a rosie cheeke,
Or a corall lip admires,
Or from starlike eyes doth seeke
Fuell to maintain his fires,
As old time makes these decay,
So his flames must waste away.

But a smooth and steadfast mind,
Gentle thoughts and calm desires,
Hearts with equal love combin'd,
Kindle never dying fires.
Where these are not, I despise
Lovely cheeks, or lips, or eyes.

RELIGIOUS DENOMINATIONS.—We take the following table of Churches and members in the United States from a Catholic paper, as furnished by the Rev. Henry B. Smith, D. D.

Making the total of communicants 9,414,200 or a little more than one-fourth of the whole population of the United States.

Thus about three-fourths of our population, or 25,000,000, make no profession of Christianity.—Rome Commercial.

☞ We shall not be surprised, however, from the present complexion of things, if the annexation of Cuba a la Texas, is added to the glories of Johnson's administration, as the annexation of Texas was the crowning glory of the blessed administration of John Tyler.—Herald of the 14th.

MARRIED,

Local and Business Notices.

A BET WANTED.—West End, Ga., Nov. 17, 1868.—I am authorized to bet Five Hundred Dollars that Col. Hulsey and his ticket will be elected Mayor and Council at the ensuing election. DAVID A. COOK, nov18 te. West End.

A CARD.—It is impossible for me to be a candidate for the office of Mayor. Several considerations forbid it.

I hoped to be excused by my neighbors and fellow-citizens without coming to the point of a public refusal.

Far from treating with slight or disrespect the preference of those partial friends who have urged me to be a candidate, I prize their good opinion as of inexpressible value, and now thank them, from a grateful heart, for their confidence and proffered support.

I will add that I cannot bring my judgment to approve of deciding our Municipal elections by party politics. Tolerating in others equal freedom of opinion and action, I shall ever be disposed to treat the selection of city officers as a mere business proceeding.

Nov. 17th, 1868. L. E. BLECKLEY.

CITIZENS' MEETING.—ON WEDNESDAY NEXT, 18th NOV., at 12 O'CLOCK.—Every Tax-payer and citizen who is willing to vote for Col. LOGAN E. BLECKLEY for Mayor, and re-elect the present able Council for another year, filling the vacancy of George Terry, resigned, of the Third Ward, with Col. L. P. GRANT, is requested to come to the City Hall on Wednesday, at 12 o'clock. Every man, irrespective of party lines, but having an eye single to "what shall we do to be saved," is requested to attend this meeting.

Every laboring man, every mechanic, every merchant or property holder, and every railroad man in the city, is deeply, vitally interested in this important election—one that involves the future solvency and prosperity of Atlanta.

Nov. 17, 1868.-2t. MANY CITIZENS.

For Council.

Mr. C. P. CASSIN is announced as a candidate for Councilman in the First Ward, by Richelieu.

BY OWEN MEREDITH.

All she-creatures that exist
Power can subdue,
Save the Muse—that could resist
Cardinal Richelieu.

He the War of Thirty years
With his right hand led;
Struck the turbulent French Peers

Mad-deh Luther tossed to bite
Emperor Charles and Rome;
But the Huguenots held tight,
Kennel-chained at home.

Greatest man of many great!
When to see him came
The Queen Mother, forced to wait,
Stood the royal dame;

Round him he, with haughty mien,
Rome's proud purple wrapped;
Trembling stood the barehead Queen;
Richelieu sat capped.

Only little poets were
Gembault, Desmarets,
Colletet, and Boisrobert:
Yet, whenever they

Came to see the Cardinal,
Each kept on his hat,
Proud as princes, and all,
These small pouts sat.

And while they in critic mood
Did his rhymes review,
Trembling and bareheaded stood
Cardinal Richelieu.

MORE ADVICE FROM MR. ADAMS.—When John Quincy Adams was in South Carolina, a number of Macon, Georgia, gentlemen addressed him a letter of invitation to visit that city and address the people. Mr. Adams did not receive the letter until after his return home, and the reply was therefore delayed until October 30. He regretted his inability to visit Georgia, and expressed much satisfaction with the condition in which he had found the Southern people. "Your position is a serious one," says Mr. Adams, "and you must try frankly and cheerfully to meet like men the fate you dared like men to invoke. If our people cannot suddenly renew their shattered confidence, or dare not grasp your stretched-out hand, why take it coldly as a part of your penalty, and set yourselves to extort a fresh faith and compel us from sheer admiration of your pluck to grasp your hand unobserved. You want but little politics, as I take it, but you do need every man of you to bend his every energy to build up your waste places, restore your languishing industry, renew your decayed trade, replenish your exhausted capital, educate and elevate the poor, ignorant and degraded within your borders, and allure all to leave no device untried to reconcile and adjust your people to the new era."

☞ "Charles VII, of Spain," as he still calls himself, is still staying in Paris, and lodges in genteel apartments in the Rue Cardinal Fesch. He is said to be a handsome young man, with grave, polished manners. He reminds visitors of his rank, and the cloud which overhangs him at present, by invariably handing them a chair with his own hands. Strict Spanish etiquette forbids any one to sit in the presence of the sovereign, and this action is intended to impress upon his visitors that he waives its provisions for the time being.

THE CONSTITUTION,

Daily and Semi-Weekly,

ATLANTA, GEORGIA

BY CAREY W. STYLES & CO.

Daily Circulation Over 3,000.

Semi-Weekly Circulation 2,000.

DAILY, PER ANNUM $10 00
" SIX MONTHS 5 00
" ONE MONTH 1 00

SEMI-WEEKLY, PER ANNUM $3 00
" SIX MONTHS 1 50
" THREE MONTHS 1 00

THE CONSTITUTION is intensely DEMOCRATIC and neither pains, enterprise, nor money will be spared, in the efforts of the Proprietors, to make it a leading organ, and one of the first papers in the South.

THE CONSTITUTION has scarcely laid aside its baptismal robes, and yet its circulation is equal to, if not greater, than any political paper in Georgia. This unparalleled success is mainly attributable to the industry and enterprise which have characterized its management.

As its name imports, it is battling for the Constitution and the liberties of the people; and the patronage it has received, assures the Proprietors that their labors are appreciated, and their policy endorsed.

As an advertising medium, THE CONSTITUTION is, perhaps, superior to any paper published in the State, its circulation being confined to no particular locality, but extending from one end of the State to the other, and from the Savannah to the Chattahoochee.

The Proprietors intend no relaxation of their energy, but will add new features of interest and more vigorous enterprise as patronage increases; and they hope in future, as in the past, to merit the good will and plaudits of their numerous readers.

PROPHITT'S REMEDIES:

Prophitt's Liver Medicine.
Prophitt's Pain Kill It.
Prophitt's Anti-Bilious Pills.

The excellent remedies of O. S. Prophitt, M. D., need no recommendation. Their well known power in removing the diseases peculiar to our Southern Climate, having already established for them an enviable reputation in Georgia and the adjoining States. As the majority of persons living in the South are pre-disposed to disease of the Liver, it is granted by all intelligent physicians that most of the pains and aches of our people are due to organic or functional derangement of that important organ. Prophitt's Anti-Bilious Pills and Liver Medicine strike directly at the root of the evil. They cure the Liver which, in nine cases out of ten, is at the bottom of the Coughs, Dyspepsia, Colic, Sick Headache, Rheumatism, Constipation, Menstrual Obstructions etc., so common among our people, Earache Toothache, Acute Rheumatism, Neuralgia, and bodily pains of every kind, flee before PROPHITT'S PAIN KILL IT like chaff before the wind.

DRY GOODS. 1868. Fall and Winter Dry Goods. 1868.

JOHN M. GANNON,

(Corner WHITEHALL and HUNTER Streets,)

IS just in receipt of the following splendid line of Goods, which he has carefully selected, and will dispose of at prices that cannot fail to give satisfaction:

DRESS GOODS OF EVERY DESCRIPTION,

A great variety of Cloaks and Shawls; a splendid line of Blankets and Flannels; a full stock of Hosiery, Handkerchiefs, Embroideries, Breakfast Shawls, Nubias, Scarfs, Ladies' Under Vests, Gloves, Hoops and Balmoral Skirts, Irish Linens, Birds' Eye Diapers, Table Linen, Scotch Diaper, Crash, Brown Cloths, Cassimeres, English Tweeds, Satinets, Kentucky and North Carolina Jeans, Prints, Sheetings, Shirtings, Denims, Stripes, Tickings, Osnaburgs, Linseys, Drills, Checks and everything kept in a first class Dry Goods store.

ONE PRICE ONLY.

It affords me pleasure to be able to state that this system has been a complete success and gives general satisfaction to my customers. For the benefit of those who have not been in the habit of doing business with me, I state that there is only one price for every article sold in my store, so that there is no danger of any person being overcharged for goods under any circumstances—in other words—a child can purchase goods in my store as cheap as the closest judge. I wish it distinctly understood that if any goods purchased in my establishment fail to come up to representation, they can be returned and the money will be refunded.

All consumers of dry goods are invited to call and examine my stock before purchasing elsewhere.
